

try a different route to work. And get wealthier in 2010.

By simply changing the way you travel once a week – cycling, walking, using public transport, car sharing or even working from home – you'll save money and could win prizes for yourself, your team and company.

Find out more and challenge yourself and others at www.movingsomersetforward.co.uk/j25

